

Washington CSPA (Children's Safe Product Act) Screening Service Launching

CSPA Reporting Rule identifies requirements for manufacturers of children's products to annually report to the Washington Department of Ecology the presence of Chemicals of High Concern to Children (CHCCs) in children's products. The Rule identifies the CHCCs and details of the processes for manufacturers to follow.

CHCCs list is as following, includes 66 chemicals:

<http://www.ecy.wa.gov/programs/hwtr/rtt/cspa/chcc.html>

FITI Testing & Research institute as a leading compliance assessment service provider, is fully capable of testing all of CHCCs listed in CSPA requirement, helping you get through the uncertain and confusing processes to verify your product is safe. The top class FITI CSPA Testing service with competitive price and high speed is available at the moment, contact Mr. Richard Kim: richard.kim@fiti.re.kr for further info.

No.205 October 2016